

William L. Walsh, Jr., Venable LLP

Bill Walsh concentrates his practice on representing federal sector companies who contract with DOD and civilian agencies. He represents clients locally, nationally, and internationally in issues including dispute resolution (ADR) and bid protests before the U.S. Government Accountability Office, Federal Boards of Contract Appeals, and executive agencies on contract administration matters, contract claims, contract terminations, teaming agreements, contractor qualification issues, organizational and personal conflict of interest concerns and small business matters.

Mr. Walsh's legal career began as a lawyer with the DOD on government contract and legislative issues. Bill also served as Chief Counsel for NASA's Marshall Space Flight Center.

Bill serves on the Dean's Council of George Mason University's School of Business and the Board of Visitors of Marymount University's School of Business. He is an active member of the Fairfax County Chamber, the Northern Virginia Technology Council and PSC.
