

Ben Rodgers is a Senior Director responsible for new business development and relationship management for BNY Mellon Wealth Management. He works primarily with GovCon business owners to help them make the transition from owner to investor.

A member of the Northern Virginia Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors, Ben also Co-Chairs the Chambers' Veterans and Military Business Council, in addition to serving on the GovCon Awards Nomination, Audit, and Membership Committees. Ben co-founded the Exit Planning Institute's Capital Region chapter. In the community, he is a mentor with YearUp, a career development nonprofit that connects underserved youth with employment opportunities in technology, and an Ambassador for the Folded Flag Foundation.

A graduate of the United States Military Academy at West Point and The Ohio State University College of Law, Ben has over 15 years' experience helping clients navigate complex environments. Earlier in his career, Ben practiced law in New Orleans and served in the Army as a Ranger-Qualified Field Artillery Officer.
