Bob Webb is a corporate lawyer with extensive experience handling transactional and finance matters for commercial enterprises, with a particular focus on government contracting, technology, real estate and healthcare clients. A Virginia native, he has practiced law in Northern Virginia since 1981.

Bob's practice includes counseling clients on corporate and partnership transactions, business and tax planning, entity formation, joint ventures and teaming arrangements, business ownership and control disputes, and corporate governance. He also advises businesses on mergers and acquisitions, securities law and public and private securities offerings, as well as venture, private equity, loan and other financial transactions.

He frequently advises on the implementation of employee ownership stock option and equity-based compensation programs; structuring employment, compensation and retention agreements for highly compensated executives; and structuring buy-sell shareholder agreements for close corporations.

In addition to serving on the board of the Northern Virginia Chamber of Commerce, Bob also is a trustee of the Northern Virginia Business Political Action Committee and a director of the DC-VA-MD chapter of the National Association of Stock Plan Professionals. Long active in bar association activities, he previously served as chair of the Business Law Section of the Virginia Bar Association (1999-2000) and as chair of the Tax Section of both the Virginia State Bar and the Fairfax Bar Association.

Bob is the co-author of Virginia Limited Liability Company - Forms and Practice Manual, the leading treatise on the limited liability company form of entity under Virginia law. He has been active in multiple bar committees providing input to the legislative process for Virginia corporate and business law, and he has considerable experience as a lecturer before local, state and national groups on a variety of business law topics.

He earned his J.D. from the University of Virginia School of Law and his M.B.A. from the Darden School of Business at the University of Virginia, both in 1981. He also graduated with distinction with a bachelor's degree from the university.

Bob is listed in The Best Lawyers in America® in the Corporate Law area and has been named to the Super Lawyers list for both Washington, D.C. and Virginia. He holds an AV Preeminent® peer review rating from Martindale-Hubbell.

Prior to joining Miles & Stockbridge, Bob was a partner with Squire Patton Boggs in Northern Virginia. He previously practiced with Reed Smith Hazel Thomas LLP, Hazel & Thomas PC, and Hazel, Beckhorn & Hanes.
