

Rick Pearson

Biography

Rick Pearson is an accomplished corporate finance executive with more than 20 years of experience leading finance and accounting organizations through transformational growth, start-ups, IPOs and restructuring. Mr. Pearson is currently the Senior Director of Corporate Finance at Neustar, Inc., a provider of real-time information and analysis to the Internet, telecommunications and information services industries. In this role, Mr. Pearson oversees all aspects of Neustar's global financial operations, finance infrastructure, and an advisor to executive management on financial matters and policy. Mr. Pearson played an integral role in Neustar's successful IPO and subsequent acquisitions totaling over $2 billion in value. Prior to joining Neustar, Mr. Pearson held finance leadership positions at Tier Technologies and JPMorgan Chase Vastera.

Mr. Pearson believes in giving back to the community. He volunteers his time to help advance the region's educational and economic development through public/private partnerships. Mr. Pearson is an active board member as Chairman of Northern Virginia Community College, LCCC and Oatlands.