

Anthony Chang joined Washington REIT (NYSE: WRE) in 2014 as a Senior Director of Asset Management to reposition its Virginia Office portfolio and help launch Silverline Center, a 550k SF mixed use redevelopment in Tysons. Promoted in 2016 to Vice President, Asset Management, Anthony leads the firm's efforts in its Office portfolio throughout the region. Prior to Washington REIT, Anthony was a trusted advisor to corporate clients as a leasing broker with Cassidy Turley where he won more than 2.5 Million SF in agency listings and closed transactions in excess of $75 Million.

Before relocating to DC in 2012, Anthony was an Asset Manager for Broadway Partners in NYC overseeing a portfolio in New York, Washington, and Boston where he consummated over $100M in leases and $900M in dispositions. Prior to joining Broadway, Anthony was a General Manager with Hines and started his career with Tishman Speyer at Rockefeller Center with roles in construction, facilities, and property management. Anthony holds degrees in Government and Economics from Cornell, a Masters in Real Estate from New York University, and he is a member of ULI.