Howard Rothman is a Vice President and Financial Advisor with J.P. Morgan Securities, a wealth management division of J.P. Morgan. He serves a select group of entrepreneurs and families primarily in the MD-DC-VA metro region.

Howard believes private wealth management has never been simply about supervision of assets. Rather, he strives to gain an understanding of the interwoven story of a client's life to ensure that his approach reflects their values, traditions and unique personal goals. He embraces each chapter of this narrative, providing guidance, insight and partnership to individuals whose objective is to sustain financial success on their terms.

Away from the office, Howard plays a civic leadership role in both his professional and local communities.
