Maria R. Clarke, CFA, is a Senior Vice President and Private Client Advisor with U.S. Trust, serving the greater Washington region. Maria works closely with individuals, families and institutions, developing integrated wealth and investment management strategies to help advance their financial objectives. Maria builds a team of U.S. Trust specialists around each client, selecting a portfolio manager, wealth strategist, private client manager, trust officer, and private banking specialists, as appropriate. She spearheads in-depth analysis of a client's family, business and philanthropic priorities, leveraging the intellectual capital of the Firm and guided by the fiduciary standard.

Maria has more than two decades of experience in private equity and commercial real estate working with institutional clients. Prior to joining U.S. Trust, she was Managing Principal of ISG Advisers, a real estate investment advisory firm. She also spent 15 years with the Building and Housing Investment Trusts, a real estate investment management platform, where she held several senior-level positions.

Maria earned her M.B.A in Finance from the University of Miami and her B.S. in Finance and Corporate Law from Florida State University. She is a graduate of Georgetown University Executive Program in International Finance and Global Markets. Maria holds the Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA) designation.
