

Gary Nakamoto Base Technologies, Inc.

Gary Nakamoto is Chairman of Base Technologies, Inc. (BTI), a professional services firm that specializes in information technology, outsourcing, and consulting.

BTI has received numerous industry awards for customer service and has been recognized for growth, being designated as a Top 100 IT federal government contractor. Clients include the US Department of Homeland Security, National Institute of Health, Department of Transportation, Department of Defense, Department of Labor, and the Department of Treasury.

Mr. Nakamoto was recently named by Washingtonian Magazine as one of the 150 most influential people in Washington DC. He also served as a member of the United States Presidential Delegation for the U.S. National Day at the World Exposition in Aichi, Japan.

Mr. Nakamoto is active in the community serving on the boards for the Commonwealth of Virginia Research and Technology Advisory Commission, American Automobile Association, Northern Virginia Technology Council, Virginia Chamber of Commerce, National Capital Region of the American Red Cross, Asian Pacific Institute for Congressional Studies, and the Inova Health Systems Foundation. He is the past chairman of the Fairfax County Chamber of Commerce and Wolftrap National Park for the Performing Arts.

Additionally, Mr. Nakamoto works with the Fairfax County Public Schools' Business Advisory and Industry Council, and the Vietnam Veterans Memorial Foundation. He also supports youth-focused charities and programs.

Mr. Nakamoto is a graduate of Ohio University and resides with his wife Kelly and son Matthew, in McLean, Virginia.