

Patricia Stevens
Executive Director
Office of Public Private Partnerships
Fairfax County Government

Patricia Stevens was appointed the Executive Director of the Office of Public Private Partnerships (OP<sup>3</sup>) by the Fairfax County Board of Supervisors in October 2008.

Stevens has been with Fairfax County since 1999, previously serving as the Regional Director for Human Services and as a Research Analyst in the Department of Systems Management for Human Services.

Stevens previously worked under Secretary Shalala in the US Department of Health and Human Services, Office of Planning and Evaluation, receiving 2 Hammer Awards from the National Partnership for Reinventing Government. She was selected as a Presidential Management Intern in 1999. In addition to her public service, Stevens has 10 years of experience in fundraising and development with community and national nonprofit organizations. She began her career as a community developer with St. Jude Children's Research Hospital.

Stevens holds a Master of Public Administration from the University of Central Florida and a Bachelor's degree in Government with a Minor in European Literature from the College of William and Mary. Stevens is a certified facilitator through the International Association of Public/Private Participation and is certified as a process manager through George Mason University.

She is a 2008 graduate of Leadership Fairfax, Inc (LFI) and serves on the LFI Board. She represents Fairfax County on Regional Council of the United Way of the National Capital Area. Ms. Stevens has lived in Fairfax County since 1995. She and her husband, Pat Trate, live in Burke and enjoy bicycling and traveling.